Patricia Renzetti performed as Principal Dancer with the Colorado Ballet and internationally for 12 years. She then graduated with an MFA in Dance from the University of Iowa and is currently a counseling degree candidate to help dancers with their life transitions. Her goal is to offer a class with healthy attitudes!!

Maedée Duprès offers a knowledge of the Alexander Technique so dancers can move with more awareness, poise and ease while attuning their alignment. Hands-on directions will be given while working at the barre. Maedée is the director of A Living Arts Centre where she practices and teaches Alexander Technique, Craniosacral and Tai Chi Ch'uan. She is an internationally known modern dancer and was based in London, where she performed in the 1970's and 80's.
